"Dream It, Live It, Teach It"

Jeremy's Heroes kids begin as eager students — but emerge as confident teachers — having learned life lessons like teamwork, discipline, leadership, compassion, and citizenship.

Our Inspiration, Jeremy Logan Glick:

On September 11, 2001, thirty-one-year-old Jeremy Logan Glick, and his fellow passengers, sacrificed their lives to prevent terrorists from flying Flight 93 into its Washington, D.C. target. On that day, Jeremy helped save countless lives, displaying character, courage and honor—he is an American Hero.

Our Mission:

Jeremy's Heroes identifies children in need, provides assistance for participating in sports programs, and sets and promotes examples of excellence, as exemplified by Jeremy Glick, to help children to realize their "hero within".

Our Vision:

Jeremy's Heroes strives to ensure that all children have the opportunity to improve themselves and their communities through organized sports and character education.
