

Golf Classic Raises Over $100,000

On June 21, Jeremy's Heroes hosted its 3rd Annual Golf Classic at the New Jersey National Golf Club in Basking Ridge, NJ. Our two dedicated supporters, Honorary Chairpersons, Bill Bishop, Founder of The Blue Buffalo Company, www.bluebuff.com, and Jane Pauley, NBC Television Personality, led the way to a successful event. With 132 players from as far away as Charleston, SC, the course sparkled with enthusiasm. That energy, and perhaps the spectacular weather helped JH raise over $100,000.

Said JH Board Member, and Executive Co-Chair, Peter Kenny, "I've played in dozens of outings for various charitable concerns over the years and the Jeremy's Heroes golf outing is one of the highlights I look forward to every year. The entire day is well run and the people running and attending the event are a blast to spend the day with. It is a truly wonderful feeling knowing that a significant amount of money can be raised for such a great cause and the participants can have such a good time as well."

The day of golf culminated in a cocktail hour and silent auction, dinner and a live auction. Before the live auction, Jeremy's Heroes was proud to introduce Matt Ryan from the Boys and Girls Club of Metro-Atlanta. He was able to describe firsthand the impact of the JH donation to their Judo program. Also present was Eddie Tate from the First Tee of Greater Trenton to accept a donation of 10 sets of junior golf clubs for his program from Jeremy's Heroes. The golf clubs will be used to introduce golf to a population that would otherwise not have access to this great sport.

The highlight of the evening was witnessing the entertaining auctioneering skills of 2 time Pro-Bowler and former NY Giants, Ottis Anderson. He was a brilliant auctioneer, getting caught up in the infectious JH excitement. With unmatched generosity and good humor, O.J. donated not one, but four packages to accompany 4 high bidders to Giants' games and even go to a fifth donor's home for dinner and a game on TV.

With a flood of requests to reserve a spot in next year's outing, we are quickly working on setting next year's date and time. If you did not golf this year, but would like to be included in the early-bird mailer for next year's event, email jglick@jeremysheroes.org and include your address. jh

Honor a Loved One With A Donation To Jeremy's Heroes

Want to congratulate someone on a birthday, graduation, marriage, or other auspicious occasion, and don't know what to get him or her? Want to honor someone's memory in a meaningful way? We have the answer! Make a donation in their honor, and we'll do the rest. An honorary donation to Jeremy's Heroes will be appreciated not only by the honoree, but also by the countless Jeremy's Heroes Kids who will benefit from your generosity. Simply enclose the person's name and address along with your donation, in the envelope provided in this newsletter, and we will send the honoree a certificate acknowledging your gift on their behalf. For more information, contact us at (877) 654-6773. jh

Jim suggested that in return for help from Jeremy's Heroes, he could give back to his community by educating other children, both the abled and the disabled, about the importance of sports for the mind and the body.

On May 24 at P.S. 34 in Jersey City, with the help of Jeremy's Heroes and the school's principal, a special assembly was held. Jennifer Glick, Executive Director of Jeremy's Heroes, introduced Jim Cuevas as a Jeremy's Heroes Kid to a room filled with students from the second, seventh and eighth grades. What followed was a lively and educational assembly. Jim and Jennifer answered the students' questions about sports, Jeremy Glick, and what it takes to become a Jeremy's Heroes Kid.

The assembly culminated in a promise from next year's eighth grade class, to participate in a 5 kilometer run this September as part of the eighth graders' community service requirement for graduation. The proceeds of the run will benefit Jim's track and field team, the Jersey City Navigators. Jeremy's Heroes also committed to running alongside our "hero" Jim Cuevas. If you would like to participate in this 5K run, contact jglick@jeremysheroes.org for more information. jh
